Goderich: Make a Mess! Indoor Play for Kids

Date and Time: Saturday, February 7 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: Huron County Museum

Make a Mess returns to the Museum this winter! Drop in each Saturday afternoon for unstructured play for primary-aged children and their families. Create without instructions, colour without lines, and play games without rules! Unstructured play encourages creativity, mixed-age play and independence.

Included with regular admission to the museum or FREE when you show your Huron County Library card or Membership! Children 5 and under always free.

Make a Mess is a great opportunity to get out of the house during the cold winter months for indoor play in a fresh setting! Meet other parents, grandparents and guardians while kids play. Visit your favourite spots in the museum and enjoy our rotating Make a Mess activity stations located throughout the building. Activities change weekly and may include the chance to:

- BUILD with cardboard, blocks, play dough, straw & connectors
- CREATE with craft supplies and upcycled materials
- PLAY and PROBLEM SOLVE with games, loose parts
- IMAGINE with toys, play sets and the Victorian doll house
- CHILL in the quiet corner with books, puzzles, colouring pages, board games, magnet poetry

- DISCOVER with tactile stations like play sand

Free wifi and comfy seating for parents. No registration required. Please be aware that some stations may contain small parts.

Snacks from home can be consumed in designated areas. Allergy Aware: The Huron County Museum is allergy aware! Please help us to create a safe and inclusive space for everyone, by thinking of visitors with food allergies. Peanut and tree nut allergies can cause a more immediate threat to life than other food-related allergies. For the safety of all visitors, the Huron County Museum asks visitors to not consume nut or nut-based products inside the museum or gaol. Please note, however, that the Huron County Museum cannot guarantee that our sites are entirely nut-free, as we are open to the public and snacks offered during programs and special events are prepared at offsite facilities.

Goderich: Make a Mess! Indoor Play for Kids

Date and Time: Saturday, February 14 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: Huron County Museum

Make a Mess returns to the Museum this winter! Drop in each Saturday afternoon for unstructured play for primary-aged children and their families. Create without instructions, colour without lines, and play games without rules! Unstructured play encourages creativity, mixed-age play and independence.

Included with regular admission to the museum or FREE when you show your Huron County Library card or Membership! Children 5 and under always free.

Make a Mess is a great opportunity to get out of the house during the cold winter months for indoor play in a fresh setting! Meet other parents, grandparents and guardians while kids play. Visit your favourite spots in the museum and enjoy our rotating Make a Mess activity stations located throughout the building. Activities change weekly and may include the chance to:

- BUILD with cardboard, blocks, play dough, straw & connectors
- CREATE with craft supplies and upcycled materials
- PLAY and PROBLEM SOLVE with games, loose parts
- IMAGINE with toys, play sets and the Victorian doll house
- CHILL in the quiet corner with books, puzzles, colouring pages, board games, magnet poetry
- DISCOVER with tactile stations like play sand

Free wifi and comfy seating for parents. No registration required. Please be aware that some stations may contain small parts.

Snacks from home can be consumed in designated areas. Allergy Aware: The Huron County Museum is allergy aware! Please help us to create a safe and inclusive space for everyone, by thinking of visitors with food allergies. Peanut and tree nut allergies can cause a more immediate threat to life than other food-related allergies. For the safety of all visitors, the Huron County Museum asks visitors to not consume nut or nut-based products inside the museum or gaol. Please note, however, that the Huron County Museum cannot guarantee that our sites are entirely nut-free, as we are open to the public and snacks offered during programs and special events are prepared at offsite facilities.

Date and Time: Sunday, February 15 2:00 pm

Address: The Livery / Goderich Little Theatre

Written by Richard Alfieri

Directed by Brian Makcrow

Sponsored by BMR Leis Lumber Company, Goderich

Six Dance Lessons in Six Weeks is a touching and human comedy about a formidable retired woman who hires an acerbic dance instructor to give her private dance lessons - one per week for six weeks - in her condo. What begins as an antagonistic relationship blossoms into an intimate friendship as these two people from very different backgrounds reveal their secrets, fears, and joys while dancing the Swing, Tango, Waltz, Foxtrot, and Cha-Cha. They learn to overcome their outward differences and discover an unlikely but profound connection.

About the event

Comedy night in the taproom presented by East Street Cider Co. & Engage Goderich

Kitchen open until 9pm but there will be no food service during the performance

Early Show: Doors at 6pm, show at 7pm - seats are first, come first served.

Late Show: Doors open at 8:30pm, show at 9:15pm - seats are first, come first served.

Late Show Guest Opener: Joe Hallam

We've hosted Goderich native "Joe Dawg Hallam" a number of times and are so glad to have him back to open up the late show with his local flare and hilarious energy!

Headliner: @John Mostyn

John Mostyn is a Toronto based comedian hailing originally from Glasgow, Scotland. Since moving to Canada, he has quickly emerged himself as one of the most exciting and popular performers in the city. John's storytelling and quick witted fish-out-of-water humour has had him likened to other Scottish comedy legends; Billy Connolly and Kevin Bridges. A charming, friendly, and hilarious stand up, he is always a crowd favourite. John was recently featured in Interrobang's top ten up-and-coming comedians to watch in Canada. His debut album, 'Scottish C*nt', was released in 2022 via Cottage Country Digital, went straight to #1 on the iTunes chart, and was received to great critical acclaim. The Interrobang listed it as #1 Comedy Album in Canada 2022, and legendary comedy reviewer, Glen Sumi, called it his #2 Canadian comedy album of the year.

John has opened up for comedy heavyweights such as Russell Howard, James Adomian, Josh Gondelman, River Butcher, Randy Feltface, Amy Miller, and Matt Braunger. He has performed at Just For Laughs Toronto, Edinburgh Fringe Festival, Cottage Comedy Festival, Brantford Comedy Festival, Toronto Sketchfest, Montreal Sketchfest, the United Comedy Festival and more. In 2016 he won the 'Mark Breslin Award for Stand up Comedian of the Year'. John performs nightly in Toronto and regularly performs across Canada and the United States.

Feature: Kyle Patan

Kyle Patan is a stand up comedian based out of Toronto, Ontario. He has done the Grindstone Comedy Festival in Edmonton, Just For Laughs Northwest in Vancouver, as well as JFL Toronto. He recently released his debut special and album "Comin' Home" on YouTube. This past year he has been touring all over the country from Victoria to Halifax with his podcast "Battle of the Bands with Kyle and Sam" streaming on all audio platforms.

+ MC: @Ben McKay

Ben McKay is a Canadian comedian who recently relocated to New York City! Starting stand-up at 19 years old, he has spent the last 7 years honing his craft and touring all across Canada. He has performed at Just For Laughs Toronto - including a JFL Live Sessions Recording, the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, the Toronto Comedy Festival, and was named one of Canada's Next Gen of Comedy at the inaugural Departure Fest (formerly Canada Music Week). Since moving to America earlier this year Ben has hit the ground running as well with performing at the Cleveland Comedy Festival, Fountain City Comedy Festival, and being selected as a 'Comic to Watch' at the New York Comedy Festival!

Goderich: Six Dance Lessons in Six Weeks

Date and Time: Friday, February 20 8:00 pm

Address: The Livery / Goderich Little Theatre

Written by Richard Alfieri

Directed by Brian Makcrow

Sponsored by BMR Leis Lumber Company, Goderich

Six Dance Lessons in Six Weeks is a touching and human comedy about a formidable retired woman who hires an acerbic dance instructor to give her private dance lessons - one per week for six weeks - in her condo. What begins as an antagonistic relationship blossoms into an intimate friendship as these two people from very different backgrounds reveal their secrets, fears, and joys while dancing the Swing, Tango, Waltz, Foxtrot, and Cha-Cha. They learn to overcome their outward differences and discover an unlikely but profound connection.

**Keep an eye out for info for our SPECIAL VALENTINE'S PERFORMANCE on Feb 14.

Tickets available MONDAY, JANUARY 12 2026

Goderich: Make a Mess! Indoor Play for Kids

Date and Time: Saturday, February 21 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: Huron County Museum

Make a Mess returns to the Museum this winter! Drop in each Saturday afternoon for unstructured play for primary-aged children and their families. Create without instructions, colour without lines, and play games without rules! Unstructured play encourages creativity, mixed-age play and independence.

Included with regular admission to the museum or FREE when you show your Huron County Library card or Membership! Children 5 and under always free.

Make a Mess is a great opportunity to get out of the house during the cold winter months for indoor play in a fresh setting! Meet other parents, grandparents and guardians while kids play. Visit your favourite spots in the museum and enjoy our rotating Make a Mess activity stations located throughout the building. Activities change weekly and may include the chance to:

- BUILD with cardboard, blocks, play dough, straw & connectors
- CREATE with craft supplies and upcycled materials
- PLAY and PROBLEM SOLVE with games, loose parts
- IMAGINE with toys, play sets and the Victorian doll house
- CHILL in the quiet corner with books, puzzles, colouring pages, board games, magnet poetry
- DISCOVER with tactile stations like play sand

Free wifi and comfy seating for parents. No registration required. Please be aware that some stations may contain small parts.

Snacks from home can be consumed in designated areas. Allergy Aware: The Huron County Museum is allergy aware! Please help us to create a safe and inclusive space for everyone, by thinking of visitors with food allergies. Peanut and tree nut allergies can cause a more immediate threat to life than other food-related allergies. For the safety of all visitors, the Huron County Museum asks visitors to not consume nut or nut-based products inside the museum or govt. Please note, however, that the Huron County Museum cannot guarantee that our sites are entirely nut-free, as we are open to the public and snacks offered during programs and special events are prepared at offsite facilities.

Date and Time: Thursday, February 26 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: Huron County Museum

Visit the Huron County Museum for a Sundance-featured documentary that spotlights librarians on the front lines, standing up to book bans and protecting the freedom to read for everyone.

Get to Know the Huron Chamber

Date and Time: Thursday, February 26 4:00 pm - 7:00 pm

Address: 190 Thames Rd E Unit 102, Exeter, ON

Join the Huron Chamber of Commerce for a casual “Get to Know the Huron Chamber” gathering in Exeter on February 26. This is a drop-in, come-and-go opportunity to meet Chamber board members and connect with other local business leaders, without a formal agenda, speeches, or presentations. Whether you are a long-time member, newly joined, or simply curious, you will have a chance to ask questions, share what you do, and learn what the Chamber is focused on across Huron County.

The purpose is simple: build relationships and strengthen the network that helps our local economy thrive. The Chamber’s role is to connect the right people in the right room at the right time, so businesses can collaborate, solve problems, and find opportunities together. If you are in South Huron, this is also a great way to get familiar with the county-wide Chamber and meet the people behind the work.

Goderich: Make a Mess! Indoor Play for Kids

Date and Time: Saturday, February 28 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: Huron County Museum

Make a Mess returns to the Museum this winter! Drop in each Saturday afternoon for unstructured play for primary-aged children and their families. Create without instructions, colour without lines, and play games without rules! Unstructured play encourages creativity, mixed-age play and independence.

Included with regular admission to the museum or FREE when you show your Huron County Library card or Membership! Children 5 and under always free.

Make a Mess is a great opportunity to get out of the house during the cold winter months for indoor play in a fresh setting! Meet other parents, grandparents and guardians while kids play. Visit your favourite spots in the museum and enjoy our rotating Make a Mess activity stations located throughout the building. Activities change weekly and may include the chance to:

- BUILD with cardboard, blocks, play dough, straw & connectors
- CREATE with craft supplies and upcycled materials
- PLAY and PROBLEM SOLVE with games, loose parts
- IMAGINE with toys, play sets and the Victorian doll house
- CHILL in the quiet corner with books, puzzles, colouring pages, board games, magnet poetry
- DISCOVER with tactile stations like play sand

Free wifi and comfy seating for parents. No registration required. Please be aware that some stations may contain small parts.

Snacks from home can be consumed in designated areas. Allergy Aware: The Huron County Museum is allergy aware! Please help us to create a safe and inclusive space for everyone, by thinking of visitors with food allergies. Peanut and tree nut allergies can cause a more immediate threat to life than other food-related allergies. For the safety of all visitors, the Huron County Museum asks visitors to not consume nut or nut-based products inside the museum or gaol. Please note, however, that the Huron County Museum cannot guarantee that our sites are entirely nut-free, as we are open to the public and snacks offered during programs and special events are prepared at offsite facilities.
